Our skilled tradesman will advise on the best option for you Victorian terrace loft conversion ideasYou can transform your beautiful, yet compact, Victorian terrace house into a spacious family home with a loft conversion, which can add one or more rooms to your existing space, while increasing your property's value.. These include installing centre-pivot roof windows, so your roofline is unaltered; a dormer conversion, which comprises an extension to your existing roof; installing a conversion at the rear of your property, including a flat roof with a back wall, or carrying out a "hip to gable" conversion, ideal for roof space with a small interior volume.. Victorian terraced houses are often no wider than a single room plus a corridor, so can be totally transformed by a loft conversion.. Our skilled tradesmen will be on hand to offer you the best advice on which option is suitable for your home.. On average, a loft conversion can add between £22,000 and £45,000 to the value of your home, so it's an investment in your property which will be a potential selling point should you wish to move in the future.. This would add a huge amount of value to your home, effectively converting it into a five-bedroom semi. 0041d406d9 360 Total Security For Mac 2017
